

POETIC LINES

Can you name the poets who created these famous lines?

1	If I should die, think only this of me:
2	What is this life if, full of care, We have no time to stand and stare.
3	Do not go gentle into that good night
4	“The time has come”, the walrus said, “to talk of many things”
5	To err is human; to forgive, divine
6	April is the cruellest month,
7	How do I love thee? Let me count the ways.
8	Shall I compare thee to a summer’s day?
9	I think that I shall never see, a poem lovely as a tree
10	I wandered lonely as a cloud
11	Oh, to be in England now that April’s there
12	If you can keep your head when all about you, Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
13	In Xanadu did Kubla Khan, A stately pleasure-dome decree:
14	The old lie: Dulce et Decorum est pro patria mori.
15	Tis better to have loved and lost, than never to have loved at all
16	She walks in beauty, like the night
17	Tyger Tyger, burning bright, In the forests of the night;
18	They also serve who only stand and wait.
19	Stop all the clocks, cut off the telephone
20	Candy is dandy, but liquor is quicker
21	I will arise and go now, and go to Innisfree,
22	O my Luve is like a red, red rose, That’s newly sprung in June;
23	The Moving Finger writes; and, having writ, Moves on
24	A thing of beauty is a joy forever
25	In Flanders fields the poppies blow
